The AGPS received news about the death of each of "Jamil Mohammed," and "Ismat Ismail," PLA members due to clashes that happened in suburb of Daraa city, while "Yazan Ramiz Al Dabbagh", from Al Aedein camp in Homs, also died due to clashes in the town of Al Qatifa in Damascus suburb.

Bringing the PLA victims toll, in less than 24 hours, to three victims, while the number of the PLA victims that was documented by the AGPS has reached (118) victim.

Meanwhile, the young man "Ahmed Mahmoud Taamari" died in Al Maidan neighborhood in Aleppo after being shot by a stray bullet in the head, where he was transferred to the hospital, but he died of his injuries.

Recent Updates

Medical resources in the Yarmouk camp south of Damascus confirmed to the AGPS correspondent that jaundice disease has spread recently among children, women, and elderly people. The jaundice spread due to the malnutrition, the lack of medical care and general hygiene resulted in the strict siege imposed on the camp by the Syrian Regular Army and the PFGC groups for 599 days.

In addition to the prevention of entering urgent food and medical aid for more than two months, while the water is till cut for 169 days respectively, and power cut for 679 days.

Meanwhile, sporadic shelling targeted the farms surrounding Khan Al Shieh camp in Damascus suburb by the forces No. 137, coincided with heavy explosion sounds that targeted Al Qunaitra town.

The shelling came in light of the continuation of closing all roads linking the camp and the center of Damascus city except for Zakia-Khan AL Shieh road that the residents have to go through it despite its risk, as this road is frequently bombed specially during the afternoon.

The clashes that broke out yesterday in Al Aedein camp in Homs between the Syrian security and a number of armed groups were stopped. The clashes broke out after the Syrian security forces implemented a wide arrest and raid campaign resulted in the death of a security member and the injury of a number of them while trying to raid a house.

According to a resident, the clashes stopped after the Syrian security forces arrested a number of the wanted people's families including women, and after the pressure that was put against the armed groups.

Meanwhile some wanted people surrender to the Syrian security; they are: Rami Khalil Sohba "Abu Khalil", in his forties originally from Tarshiha village, Wisam Al Sayed "Abu Mohammed", in his fifties originally from Safad city, Ahmed Al Shaabi, known as "Abu Al Ghour", and a young man from the family of Al Amairy, a displaced from Damascus; the AGPS could not assure his first name.

In the same context, sporadic clashes broke out yesterday at dawn between the Syrian security forces and a number of armed young men inside the camp; the clashes continued till the early morning hours. Furthermore, all streets and lanes of the camp were empty, as all schools, kindergartens, and shops were closed for fear of renewing the clashes.

The Syrian security forces imposed a siege at the entrances and exits of the camp in addition to the closure of the three borders and the prevention of entering vegetable and food cars.

In Aleppo, the Syrian security forces arrested the two Palestinian refugees Mohammed Derbas, 27 years, and Shehada Meari, 47 years from Al Nairab camp in Aleppo. It is mentioned that Al Meari joined the public committees that was formed by the residents of Al Nairab camp to defend their camp against any attacks, yet, the young man decided to leave his weapon after the formation of Al Quds brigade that fights alongside with the Syrian Army outside the camp.

Civil Work Committees

Jenin Scout Group organized an activity yesterday in the Yarmouk camp entitled "The Empty Stomach Carnival," aiming to convey the voice of the Yarmouk besieged residents to the human rights organizations, the UNRWA, and the concerned parties in order to move seriously and effectively to end the Yarmouk siege, to save the rest of its residents, and to neutralize them from the war in Syria.
