Recent Updates

The Yarmouk camp witnessed a state of tension because of the injury of a woman and a child by a sniper's shot during the food baskets distribution which led to clashes and the stop of distribution process which deprived the residents again to receive their aids due to clashes of the two conflict parts.

The Yarmouk siege, which is imposed on the camp by the Regular army and the PFGC, entered its 433 day respectively and resulted in 156 victims due to the shortage of medical care, food and fuel. The water cut on the houses of the camp is still continuous for the Seventeenth day respectively in addition to the electricity cut for more than a year.

The water crises in Yarmouk camp

In terms of living, a noticed decrease on the prices of food materials inside the camp due to buying the food materials in good prices from Bait Sahem area.

On the other hand, the Khan Danoun camp in Damascus city is still suffering of a severe crisis in drinking water where the residents were forced to buy the water from the mobile tanks which costs about 15$ which increased their economic burdens especially the high coast of living and the spread of unemployment. It is mentioned that the camp receives hundreds of displaced Palestinian families who left their camps because of the siege and bombing.

In Qudseyya town in Damascus city, thousands of displaced Palestinian families from the Yarmouk camp to the town are suffering of severe economic crises because of the high prices of rent houses and because of the unemployment. The residents also complain of the continuous power and water cut for respective days, where the number of the Palestinian families who were displaced from their camps to seek safety in Qudseyya town is about 6000 families most of them from the Yarmouk camp.

Civil Work Committees

Under the title of “Lebas Al Taqwa”, the Charity Commission for the Relief of the Palestinian People distributed a quantity of used clothes to some displaced Palestinian families in Qudseyya in Damascus city.

The Palestinian Refugees Commission in the Temporary Syrian Government distributed a number of school bags on the students of Dara’a camp for Palestinian Refugees.

In the Yarmouk camp, The Ataa Organization continued to provide fuel to the residents to help them pump water from the wells which were activated by the staff of the organization. The Hemma Voluntary Youth Group continued to clean rebels and the streets of Khan Al Shaih camp in Damascus city for the eleventh day respectively.

Release

The Syrian Security released yesterday Siham Mohammed Al Dali from Khan Al Shaih camp after being arrested for several months.

Lebanon

The Lebanese General Security calls, in a statement on its website, the Palestinians of Syria refugees in Lebanon who are in Lebanon in an illegal and legal way to visit the Security centers to settle their situation in Lebanon for free from 25/9/2014. The statement mentioned that the Palestinians of Syria in Lebanon' s position who entered Lebanon illegally before 21/8/2014 will be settled through giving them temporary residencies for three months and for one time without any fees according to an accredited mechanism to renew the regencies of the Palestinians refugees in Syria.

The Lebanese General Security mentioned that the position settling will be for free and will not be applied on the Palestinians of Syria refugees who hold the annual residency cards "the permanent" , the refugees who got it as a complement or for work. According to the statement, the refugees who entered Lebanon in an illegal way will be giving a three-month residency for one time without any fees and after enclosing the requested documents like the identity cards, passports or the personal certificate.

It is worth mentioning that about 50000 Palestinian Syrian refugees in Lebanon suffer of illegal positions, where the Lebanese General Security refused the residency to many of the Palestinian Syrian refugees under the pretext of the absence of orders for their situation.

It is referred that Lebanon has issued a number of decisions that limit the entry of the Palestinian Syrian Refugees to its territories. The Lebanese General Security transferred more than 40 refugees to Syria under the pretext of arresting them while they were trying to travel in fake visas in one of the Arab countries. In general the Palestinians of Syria suffer of legal and economic crises which increased their suffering which started after they were forced to leave their camps due to siege and frequent bombings.

The Palestinians of Syria Committee in Lebanon, the civil committees in Sour, Shahed Organization for Human Rights and Thabet Organization performed a sit-in in front of the UNRWA Director's Office in Burj Al Shamaly camp to condemn the UNRWA decision of the financial aids cut on hundreds of displaced Palestinian families who were displaced to Lebanon. At the end of the sit-in, the protestors delivered a letter to the Director of UNRWA Office in Burj Al Shamaly camp.

It is refereed that the Palestinians of Syria Committee in Burj Al Shamaly camp written down the names of the Palestinian families who were deprived of the UNRWA financial aids, under the pretext of that they don't need the aids, to handle the names to the Director of the UNRWA Office in Sour in Lebanon.
