Recent Updates

Bombing targeted Alnairab camp in Aleppo where a shell landed on a house, causing more than five injuries in addition to the material damage, and noted that the camp had been exposed to a fall of a helicopter belonging to the regular army where it was loaded with explosives, resulted in 12 victims and more than 40 wounded.

It is worth mentioning that one of the Syrian army helicopters loaded with explosives was hit by anti-aircraft missile, which led to its crashing and exploding above the camp houses, causing great human and material damages.

The damaged house in Alnairab camp

In Damascus, Khan Al Sheih camp was subjected by a shell landed on one of its houses, resulted in at least two victims, a number of wounded as well as great destruction in the region. The road that connects the camp and the town of Zakia is still open, which is the only remaining way to connect the camp with the surrounding areas. Meanwhile, power supply and communication lines have returned back to work.

On the other hand, the dispute between the people of Khan Dannoun camp in Damascus city and the members of the regular army checkpoint and Palestinian groups loyal to it turned to shooting in the air in an attempt to scare the people.

These events come after what was described by one of the residents to our correspondent as "irresponsible behaviors " by the members of the checkpoint, where they harass people and delayed them and in some cases they confiscated what they carry from foodstuffs.

The camp suffers of a severe crisis of water, forcing residents to buy it through tankers which increases the economic burden on them, especially in light of high unemployment, and noted that the camp receives hundreds of Palestinian families displaced from their camps because of clashes, bombing and siege.

Regular Army checkpoint and groups of the Popular Front - General Command in Yarmouk Camp in Damascus, allowed the Charity Committee for the relief of Palestinian people to enter amount of food aid to the camp.

The aid was distributed to the residents who were trapped for more than a year, and noted that the camp is suffering from sharp health and living crises, most notably the spread of jaundice and typhoid fever among its residents as a result of the lack of medical services because of the siege.

In a related context, Palestinian Red Crescent Assembly begun to give children vaccines at Deir Yassin medical compound of Palestine hospital after receiving a batch of vaccines from outside the camp, in addition to the continuing vaccine of polio campaign since days.

The medical center at the entrance of the camp continues to provide medical services to the people and give advice and guidance on hygiene and proper health behavior.

Vaccines for children in Yarmouk refugee camp

In Turkey, Palestinian refugees in the center of temporary shelter for Palestinian Syrian families in Kals city started solidarity events with the people of Gaza Strip, coincided with the anniversary of the assassination of Palestinian artist Naji Al-Ali, where it was an art exhibition included many of Naji Al-Ali paintings, which embodies the rebellion and the painful reality and rejection of injustice and occupation.

The show was followed by a theater show inspired by the artist's paintings that mimic reality and calls for freedom and resistance.

The residents of the camp have organized anger stops condemning the brutal aggression on Gaza and the overlook of supporting Palestinian refugees issues and the Arab and international silence, followed by Silent theatrical presentation entitled (to Gaza from the heart) to tell the story of the strip that are suffering at the moment.
