Some residents and activists accused the Syrian Regime forced at the Camp Checkpoint of detaining more than 20 people from Al Husaeneyya camp including women. #### Khan Al Shieh camp

In Damascus Suburb, the suffering of hundreds of the displaced Palestinian families, who were displaced from Yarmouk camp and other camps, was increased at Qudseya area due to the continuation of siege that is imposed on this area by the Syrian Army since 23rd of July 2015. The siege was due to the kidnap one of the Syrian Security member by the Opposition groups, the siege was negatively reflected on the situation of the residents and the displaced Palestinian refugees and they suffer of securing the bread and food materials.

At Hama, the residents of Al Aedin camp live in a relatively calm state comparing to other Palestinian camps, the camp receives a big number of the displaced families from various camps and cities such as Aleppo, Idlib, Suburb, Hama, Deir Al Zoor, and Al Raqqa. The residents also suffer of the Strict Security Cordon on the entrances and exits of the camp and the arrest campaigns that the Regular Army carries once in a while. In terms of Economic side, the residents are complaining the spread of unemployment due to the deteriorated security situation, which affected the residents of the camp who most of the lost their work and they became dependent on the relief aid that are distributed in the camp.

Germany

News reports mentioned that The German Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF) has issued internal instructions suspending the Dublin procedure in respect of Syrian nationals. Under the Dublin Regulation, a Member State may make use of the "sovereignty clause" to voluntarily assume responsibility for processing asylum applications for which it is not otherwise responsible under the criteria of the Regulation.

According to the instructions, dated 21 August 2015, Dublin procedures that have already been initiated in relation to Syrians are to be cancelled, in order for Germany to become the Member State responsible for processing their claims. This entails that enforceable return orders for Dublin transfers to other countries are also to be revoked. Newly applying Syrian and Palestinian Syrian asylum seekers are to be immediately channeled into the regular asylum procedure and will not be given the Dublin questionnaires usually provided to applicants, under the condition of proving by an ID or a Passport. The activists see that the German procedure is temporary to alleviate the pressure on the border areas which are crowded with thousands of immigrants especially from Syria, who escaped the ongoing war in Syria.
