Latest Developments

AGPS news correspondent sounded the alarm over the propagation of the life-threatening typhoid fever and jaundice in areas controlled by Tahrir AlSham (formerly known as AlNusra Front) west of Yarmouk Camp for Palestinian refugees, in southern Damascus.

AGPS reporter attributed the crisis to the twofold blockade enforced by the Syrian government forces and their war partners, on the one hand, and ISIS militias, on the other. Contaminated water wells have added bad to worse.

Several typhoid-stricken civilians have been spotted in southern Damascus, mostly in Yarmouk Camp.

Meanwhile, fierce clashes burst out between ISIS and the anti-government Jaysh AlIslam battalion in AlBasateen, in AlZein neighborhood, located between Yalda and AlHajar AlAswad. A fighter from Jaysh AlIslam was pronounced dead. Injuries were reported on both sides.

At the same time, dozens of civilians fled Yarmouk Camp to the nearby towns of Yalda, Babila, and Beit Sahem so as to mark Eid AlFitr after ISIS tightened the noose around civilians' necks and stepped up crackdowns in the camp.

The joy of Eid for 3,000 Palestinians seeking shelter in Yarmouk and over 10,000 others taking cover in Babila, Yalda, and Beit Sahem, has been marred by the tough blockade and the tragic humanitarian situation rocking the area.

In the meantime, AGPS renews its calls to the Palestinians of Syria to register the names of their detained or missing relatives on the group's official website.

To report any information regarding a missing or detained relative please click here: actionpal.org.uk/en/reported_victim.php.

Lists of missing or detained refugees are available on AGPS website, both in English and Arabic. AGPS supplies a database of their names and possible times and places of arrest.

In another development, the Turkish Embassy in Lebanon continues to prevent Palestinian refugees from Syria and Lebanon from obtaining visas. As a result, hundreds of Palestinians from Syria have embarked on life-threatening journeys via illegal immigration roads to reach Turkey, fleeing war-tattered Syria.
