The delegation was supposed to head to Damascus on Monday, as the media sources indicated that the Syrian apology based on the confusion and contradiction that dominated the PLO leadership position about dealing with the Yarmouk refugee camp crisis.

Palestinian media resources confirmed that the Syria Foreign Minister apologized about receiving the Palestinian delegation that was formed by the PLO executive committee. The delegation was supposed to head to Damascus on Monday, as the media sources indicated that the Syrian apology based on the confusion and contradiction that dominated the PLO leadership position about dealing with the Yarmouk refugee camp crisis.

For his part, Ahmed Majdalani envoy of the Palestinian Authority to Damascus, said: "Syria requested a postponement of the PLO delegation visit which was scheduled for Monday next week. Meanwhile, Syria asked for a postponement for a week and not refused the Palestinian delegation visit due to internal concerns, where there are Palestinian disagreements over how to get ISIS out of the Yarmouk refugee camp. Violent clashes broke out yesterday at Yarmouk south of the Syrian capital, Damascus at the northern region between Palestinian factions and ISIS groups alongside Al Nusra Front.

Meanwhile, armed groups affiliated to the Syrian opposition and Aknaf brigades attacked headquarter of Al Nusra and ISIS at Palestine square south of the camp. The attack resulted in Aknaf arresting of two members of ISIS and Al Nusra; one of them is Abu Suhaib a security official of ISIS. The Syrian Security arrested the Palestinian refugees Al AlTawil and Ashraf Sabah Al Dali from Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus after they were returning back to Syria without acknowledging the place or the reasons of arrest.

Khan Al Shieh camp for Palestinian refugees was exposed to bombing by the Syrian Army where about 500 artillery shells and 20 explosive barrels targeted Khan Al Shieh, Mazare Al Abasseyya , the 137 troop and Zakiatwon sides, the Syrian Army fired lightning bombs at the vicinity of Al Fawj area.

Khan Al Shieh camp

The events came after the sudden attack of the Syrian Opposition on the location of the Syrian Army 137 and violent clashes broke out between the Syrian Army and the Opposition then the Syrian Army targeted the area with explosive barrels and rockets.

Zakia road Khan Al Shieh was closed due to the bombing and the clashes which prevented the residents of Khan Al Sheih to return back and they stayed at Zakia town where the residents of Zakia gave help to Khan Al Shieh people till they return back. It is referred that Zakia Khan Al Shieh Road is the only road that connect the camp with the adjacent areas and it is always targeted with bombing and fire shooting which prevent the residents to get out and return back in addition to the prevention of the food and aid entry which increased the suffering of the camp's residents.

In a similar context the AGPS correspondent reported that Al Nairab camp for Palestinian refugees in Aleppo witnessed a huge security tension due to the clashes between the residents of Al Nairab village and the residents of Tal Shoeeb area, which led to the death of 4 people from both sides. The residents put checkpoints between the roads of the two villages and a checkpoint was built at Al Nairab camp because it is located between the two areas. The correspondent said that Al Quds brigade members cleaned the checkpoint and discharged the members of the checkpoint and they refused to leave and fired bullets in the air and threatened to fire the passers of the camp and the correspondent referred to that the problem was solved after the interference of the officer who is responsible for Al Nairab Military Airport.

In Hama, the residents of Al Aedin camp for Palestinian refugees concentrated on the security and economy sides. The youth of the camp live in a worry and fear of arrest state due to the spread of several Regular Army checkpoints inside and outside of the camp, which prompted many youth to leave the camp specially who are in the age of the compulsory military service. In terms of economy, the residents complain of the unemployment spread due to the tensed security situation which affected the camp and most of the residents lost their jobs and they became completely dependent on the relief aid that is distributed once in a while.

Civil Work Committees

Under the slogan "we plant life despite death," Palestine Charity Committee launched the forestation streets of Khan Al Shieh camp, as team of volunteer shave cleaned the main street, and distributed water to the people of the camp.

It is noteworthy that, in the beginning of the events in Syria, relief organizations and institutions working in the Palestinian refugee camps in Syria, including Palestine Charity Committee, had prominent role in embracing and receive arrivals and these associations became working to alleviate the suffering and provide relief services to them.
