Tunisia

A number of Palestinian _ Syrian detainees children at Al Wardeya Tunisia police station for more than a month and a half, appealed all sides to work on their release, where a child appealed, in an audio recording published by activists on the Internet, "release us for God Sake". While another child was explaining the reasons for their exit from Syria, said, "We went out of the camp because of the war" and a third child questioned," Why did you detained us? We want to live just like other people. "

Meanwhile, around "13 " Palestinian refugees still detained at Al Wardeya Tunisian police station including a number of children , for nearly a month and a half , on charges of entering the country illegally .

Lebanon

Despite what has been said in the news few days ago, about the possibility of renewing residencies for Palestinian refugees from Syria in Lebanon , yet the Lebanese General Security still refuses to renew any residence of a Palestinian refugee from Syria , where several cases were obliged to put the deported stamp on their passports.

One of the refugees said that when he visit one of the centers of public security the officer told him, " Go back to Syria ... no renew in Lebanon," wondered Mohammed, a father of four children, "what if we were deported to Syria, while my house in the Yarmouk refugee camp was completely destroyed and I cannot access the camp because of the blockade imposed on it, where to go? Who will receive me? Should I go back to the shelters? When is this torment going to finish?"

In a related context, in the last few days several cases recorded by the Action Group about preventing Palestinian students from Syrian to return back to Lebanon after leaving to do exams in Syria, which separated the family between Lebanon and Syria.

Recent updates

A mortar missile targeted Khan Dannoun camp in Damascus, caused only material damage, coincided with violent clashes in the surroundings. The camp receives hundreds of Palestinian families who were displaced from the camps because of the bombing and blockade. On the other hand the distribution of food aid resumed yesterday at Yarmouk camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus.

Number of activists circulated a list of names for the families who were allowed to return to the camp, while the group was unable to confirm the list from another source.
