Recent Updates

A state of worry and tension prevailed Khan Al Shaih camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus city because of the violent bombing with explosive barrels on the surrounding farms. The area witnessed a warplane hovering and followed by sounds of violent explosions that rocked the camp.

The people of the camp still suffer of the frequent cut for the roads that connect the camp with surrounding areas. Zakia road is the only road now in the camp and it is being closed if clashes broke out in the area or the security tensions ,which has a negative reflection on the movements of the residents in addition to the lack of basic items from the camps' markets.

Shelling that targeted the vicinity of Khan Shiekh camp

The siege which is imposed on the Yarmouk camp by the Regular Army and the PFGC inters its second year amid failure of implementing any item of the Neutralization Agreement and the returning of residents to the camp. The two parties are still complaining each other on the responsibility of failure to implement the agreement.

The Yarmouk residents are the big loser in this conflict because the camp still suffers of several crises such as the health aspect where all hospitals and clinics were stopped except the Palestine hospital which provides the basic medical care due to the shortage of staff and materials and The continues power cut increases the suffering of the people. In A related context, dozens of the Yarmouk camp residents carried out demonstrations to congratulate the people of the Gaza Strip on their victory and the stop of the Israeli aggression which lasts for two months.

The celebration in Yarmouk camp

In Homs, the displacement cases are increasing amongst the youth for fear of arrest in addition to the difficult economic conditions that they are suffering of where most of them are leaving to Turkey by land and it is not allowed for The Palestinians of Syria to enter Turkey legally which forces them to go through difficult roads in order to reach Turkey. Some youth consider Turkey as a temporary station to reach Europe.

Al Aedin camp in Homs

In Turkey, a number of Palestinians of Syria refugees, who are in Kls Turkish Displacement Center, celebrated the truce agreement in the Gaza Strip where the Israeli Occupation Army stopped targeting the civilians, children, mosques, churches and the Palestinian infrastructure. It is mentioned that the aggression lasted for two months and more than 2100 victims were killed by the Israeli forces including Women, children and old men.
