Recent Updates

The AGPS correspondent in the Yarmouk Camp for Palestinian Refugees in Damascus insured that ISIS members added more of earth mounds in the vicinity of Al-Malkeiya School at Yarmouk camp, where dozens of Al Nusra members were holding up in the camp. The events in the camp were accompanied with separate clashes between Al Nusra and ISIS in the Yarmouk camp which started in the beginning of the current month. It is mentioned that Al Nusra members eased the entry of ISIS to the camp in the beginning of April 2015, where ISIS controlled wide spaces of the camp with Al Nusra help.

In Damascus Suburb, the western parts of Khan Al Sheih were exposed to bombing which didn't lead to casualties amongst residents. The residents of Khan Al Sheih camp renewed their appeal to the parties of the conflict in Syria, the PLO, the Palestine Embassy in Syria, and Palestinian Factions in Syria, UNRWA and Human Rights Organization to immediately interfere to stop the continuous bombing that targets the camp since days. The residents stressed that there are no excuses for targeting the camp where no armed members of any faction but thousands of civilians.

In Al Aedin camp in Homs education level witnessed a sharp reversal due to many factors such as the immigration of the experienced teachers due to the deteriorated security situation to search for safety after the escalation of inspection, detention, blackmailing on the name, nationality, and religion. They also immigrated due to the psychological pressure because they were not engaged in the fighting and didn't join any party which led them to escape though their high salaries that UNRWA paid them. Conversely, the new teachers are not qualified like the experienced teachers; the new teachers started working without having the qualifying courses for education, methodologies, management, and the new education methods that led students to join private centers to strengthen their education which increased the material burdens of the families.

They also emerged the schools due to immigration, displacement, and school leakage where the number of students in each class reached 17 students especially in the ninth grade. It is worthy to mention that the residents of Al Aedin camp believe in the necessity of education and considering it as a main goal. The literacy rates in Al Aedin camp estimate is 95%. There are 6 UNRWA schools in the camp , two of them are preparatory schools “Al-Shajara and Al-Ramla” and 4 elementary schools “ Al Jaish, Al Ras Al Ahmar, Deir Al Asad and Al Barwa” in *addition to tow kindergarten “ Al Awda and Baraem Al Aqsa” .

Secondary schools, institutes, and universities are exclusively for the Syrian Government.*

*On the other hand, the Palestinians of Syria refugees in Lebanon participated in a public set-in on Friday in front of the UNRWA headquarter in Beirut, as to protest on the UNRWA services deduction in Lebanon. The protestors demanded UNRWA to reverse its decisions especially health file, they also put the responsibility of the deteriorated
