Victims

Palestinian refugee Hamza Fadi AlShehabi, from the Palestinian Popular Struggle Front died as he fought alongside the Syrian government troops in blockaded Yarmouk Camp.

Al-Shehabi's death brings the number of Palestinian refugees killed in the Syrian conflict to 3,485.

Latest Developments

Reporting from southern Damascus, AGPS reporter said ISIS militias deployed in Yarmouk Camp attacked at daybreak on Saturday areas led by Aknaf Beit AlMaqdis battalion.

Clashes burst out at the crossroads to Palestine Street and the roundabouts of the Palestine hospital and the cultural center.

Sources from Aknaf Beit AlMaqdis south of Damascus said ISIS fighters were left wounded in the raging clashes. Sounds of sporadic blasts have also been reported.

AGPS field reporter said ISIS deployment in the camp has been back to normal after a state of alert declared by the militia came to an abrupt end, following a round of fresh clashes with Fatah AlSham.

Over the past couple of days, ISIS stepped up military operations in an attempt to grab hold of Fatah AlSham-led area.

Civilians trapped in conflict zones and flashpoints have, meanwhile, sounded distress signals over the abject humanitarian situation wrought by the unabated hostilities and the tough cordon enforced by ISIS.

On Friday, Yarmouk Camp was struck with mortar shells. AGPS reporter could not identify the targeted locations due to the bloody confrontations between ISIS and Tahrir AlSham.

In another development, the Palestine Charity Commission, distributed children's milk to a number of Palestinian families displaced from Yarmouk to Yalda, Babila, and Beit Sahem.

According to the charity, civilians have been enduring an acute dearth in children's milk and much-needed foodstuff.

Hundreds of Palestinian families sheltered in Yarmouk have been forced out of the camp since ISIS held sway over the area in early April 2015.
