Recent Updates

The opening of the new Palestine Embassy headquarter in Damascus on August 28, 2016, created a wave of angry reactions and comments amongst the Palestinians of Syria refugees, where the opening coincided with targeting some Palestine camps and the continuation of the suffering of thousands of Palestinians of Syria refugees in detention centers or in places of displacement.

One the commentators said, "They sold the Palestinians in Syria and reconciled," another added, "Now we know that the reason for the frequent visits of the organization delegation to Syria that were for relations and real estates and not to neutralize the camps and releasing the detainees". Others accused the Palestinian Authority by saying, "it has sold its people and martyrs in Syria who were killed mostly by the hands of the Syrian regime".

Others said, "the Palestinian Authority provided the blood of Palestinians of Syria as a sacrifice to the Syrian Regime,". Others insured that opening the embassy is like a reward to the Palestine Authority for waiving the Palestinians of Syria rights.

It is mentioned that the Palestinians of Syria appealed the Palestine Embassy in Damascus tens of times to interfere releasing the Palestinian detainees from the Syrian prisons and stopping the siege of Yarmouk and the frequents bombing, which target the Palestinian camps in Syria specially airstrikes and explosive barrels such as the most recently bombing of Khan Al Sheih camp.

The Palestinian activists insured that there were no responses by the Palestine Embassy in a practical way after the appeals.

In the meantime, the Syrian regime forces targeted Khan Al Sheih vicinity, they launched surface-to-surface rockets Fil type on Skaik and AL Saeed streets, one of the rockets hit a house for a refugee in Al Saeed Street, which spread panic and fear among the residents and only led to material damages in the house.

The past few weeks witnessed a rapid escalation number of airstrikes that targeted Khan AL Sheih camp for Palestinian refugees in Damascus

Suburb. The airstrikes resulted in dozens of victims and wounded from the residents of the camp and the displaced families, who escaped the bombing and explosive barrels in the surrounding towns and villages. It is referred that AGPS documented 182 victims from Khan Al Sheih camp who died since the beginning of the war in Syria.

Daraa Camp for Palestinian refugees was exposed to bombing by the Syrian Regime with tanks shells, where they targeted separate areas in the camp and only led to material damages. It is worthy to mention that 70% of the camps' buildings were exposed to completely and partial damages due to the frequent bombing using shells and explosive barrels.

On the other hand, Daraa camp residents suffer of severe crisis in basic services due to the mass destruction because of the frequent bombing that targeted the camp and led to mass destruction in the infrastructure.

It is referred that most of the camp families were forced to leave the camp but few people because of the poor conditions, where the basic services are semi-absent specially the health, power and drinking water.

In Al Muzareeb southern Syria, it was reported that an explosive bomb targeted a High Lux car for Artilliray Group of the Opposition, where it was planted on the sidewalk near Al muzareeb entrance, which led to material damages in the car without any wounded.

Assassinations operations in Syria are considered a worrying source for the refugees due to the increased in the pace of assassinations that targeted the people of the area. A residents describe the events as it threatens the town specially the doer is unknown in light of the chaos in the area, which was most recently targeting Wael Mohammed Al Masri in Al Muzareeb town while getting out of the mosque.

Activists insured that the assassinations have been escalated over the past months in Daraa, where 12 assassinations only in April 2016, including Palestinian refugees, while activists accused the Syrian Security of being behind the assassination and put explosive bombs in the opposition controlled areas. Others said that the assassination events are due to liquidation operations by the Opposing themselves, but others accused the foreign intelligence, which are active in the southern Syria areas. It is referred that AGPS documented about 345 Palestinian victims from Daraa governorates including 31 from Al Muzareeb compound, where 8500 Palestinian refugees live in Al Muzareeb compound.

In addition, the Palestinian refugee Ali Abdul Rahman Ghazzal from Daraa Camp was missed while getting out from his house on August 26, 2016, and no news about him until now. It is noted that Ali Ghazzal suffers from severe pain in the head that causes forgetfulness and poor memory. It is noteworthy to mention that the number of the Palestinian refugees who were missed since the beginning of the ongoing conflict in Syria reached 287 people, according to AGPS documentation.

In the same context, Syrian security continues arresting The Palestinian Doctor Hayel Humaid for 4 years after kidnapping him from his clinic in Yarmouk. Doctor Hayel was born in Dalata in old Palestine and he is 66 years old. He works as a professor in the Medicine faculty in Damascus University, and worked as the head of surgical operations department in Al Asad hospital

Doctor Hayel insisted to return to Yarmouk camp and to open a clinic to service his people but the Syrian Security arrested him from his clinic on August 13, 2012 in charge of giving treatment to wounded people. Since then, no one knows anything about his fate or the detention place. The Regular Army and the Syrian Security exposed the health staff and clinics in the camp to huge violations such as bombing the clinics and hospitals and targeting the ambulances in addition to detaining the medical staff. Dozens of doctors, nurses and paramedics died in the events.

The Syrian Security forces have not revealed the fate of the Palestinian detainees and their numbers in the Syrian prisons. AGPS documented that there are 1100 Palestinians of Syria detainees and 449 died due to torture in the Syrian prisons.
