Victims

The young man “Adel Deyab” from the Yarmouk Camp sank to death while he was crossing between Turkey and Greece trying to reach Europe. The Young man “Nawras Ali Qasim”, PLO member, was also killed due to clashes which broke out at eastern Al Ghota in Damascus city, which raises the PLO victims toll, that were documented by the Action Group for Palestinians of Syria, to 92 victims.

Statistics

The documentary team of the Action Group for Palestinians of Syria announced that the number of Palestinian Syrian refugees, who were killed outside of Syria since the beginning of the events, has reached 38 victims. 36 of them were killed during their trial to reach European countries escaping of the war in Syria; the main reason for their death is sinking. It is mentioned that the Action Group only managed to document this number, while there are large numbers of missing people could not be documented or even know their fate.

Recent Updates

In a phone call for the Action Group for Palestinians of Syria with a Palestinian Syrian refugee who is detained in Poland, the refugee “A.A”, from Khan AL Sheih Camp in Damascus city, confirmed two cases of fainting among the Palestinian Syrian refugees who are on a hunger strike. The two cases were transported to the hospital, while their hunger strike enters the fourth day respectively, protesting on their detention by Polish authorities for 48 days in some cases.

“A.A” added that the Polish authorities arrests them in charges of entering the country illegally, and sentenced to terms of imprisonment for a period of three months, and make them choose between seeking asylum in Poland or spend three months in prison. “A.A” also stressed on that the Palestinian and Syrian refugees, who are amounted to 12 refugees including one woman, that they will continue the hunger strike until they will be released, assuring that they escaped of the war in Syria to join their families in other European countries.

About the situation in the prison, "A.A" said that they have not been beaten or hurt by the polish authorities, unless they took their fingerprints and photographed them confirming that these are Criminal Procedure and not to seek asylum in Poland. Finally he appealed all human rights and international organizations and the Palestinian embassy in Poland to intervene urgently to put an end to their suffering in Poland and to allow them to catch up with their relatives in other European countries, where they have fled from Syria because of the war, asking for safety, however they were detained in prisons.

On the other hand, explosive barrels targeted Khan Al Sheih Camp in Damascus city, the explosion sounds were heard clearly in the streets and lanes of the camp, while the roads linking the camp with the neighboring areas are still closed except for Zakia-Al Sheih road.
