Recent Updates in Syria

Residents of the Yarmouk refugee camp declared, in a statement published on Facebook pages, the stop of receiving food aids by protesting the continued siege imposed on the camp since ten months. The statement also expressed protesting about degrading treatment accompanied with beating and detention of women and men by the Syrian Security forces. Moreover, the statement stressed that the residents of the Yarmouk camp will continue their protest until they find a practical implementation of the initiative items of neutralization of the camp, allow people to return to their homes, making access of basic necessities and release Palestinian prisoners. The statement indicates that concerned parties are fully responsible for the life of the trapped civilians in Yarmouk refugee camp. In a related context some aids were distributed, yesterday, to trapped people in the camp, in addition, some of medical cases were allowed to be out of the camp to complete treatment.

It is noteworthy that the camp is suffering from an acute shortage of materials and medical services where all clinics and hospitals still totally stop working, except Palestine hospital which works at minimum energy due to the acute shortage of materials and medical staff.

On the other hand a number of missiles targeted Neirab camp in Aleppo yesterday evening, as the Palestine mosque was hit by one missile, which led to some material damages.

In a related context warplanes hovered above Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus city coincided with targeting areas adjacent to the camp with a number of shells. It is worth mentioning that, the camp and its vicinity witnessed, recently, increasing military actions, as shelling and clashes.

Sweden

A number of Palestinian Syrian refugees, who arrived to Sweden today, declared an indefinite hunger strike in "Osteren hotel" camp, protesting on what they described as ill-treatment and the constant threat, by the administration of the Camp, of being deported to their home countries.

They also protesting poor quality of food provided to them. The Hunger strikers are demanding the concerned authorities to intervene in order to solve their problem and take the case to the competent authorities.

Living Conditions

Acute shortages of food and medical items at Alrmdan camp in Damascus city, where people suffer of high cost of living and out of most of food and medical supplies, also the unemployment rate out spread in the camp.

The camp is located in the south-east of Damascus city, near Al Dameir area, which is witnessing frequent bombing. In the same context, people of Khan Al Sheih camp in Damascus city suffer of similar living crises because of the frequent interruption of the roads which connect the camp with the city center because of security tensions, bombing and clashes taking place in the areas surrounding it, almost daily. Most of Palestinian refugee camps in Syria generally have the same crises.
