Recent Updates

Warplanes targeted Al Handarat Camp for Palestinian refugees in Aleppo ,where the plains thrown four explosive barrels on the houses of people and resulted in big damages in people's properties. The camp is controlled by the Free Army and most of its residents left due to the frequent bombings. Some families left to Turkey and some to the surrounding areas which led to big economic burdens, especially with the raised prices of rented houses.

On the other hand, the Yarmouk camp witnessed a gathering for a big number of people who were preparing themselves to get some food aids near Al Reeja square in the middle of the camp, coincided with settling the position of 10 people from the camp with the Syrian security, after the entry of a civil delegation to supervise the neutralization agreement that was signed ten days ago. The delegation aimed to inspect the camp situation and follow up the settling of youth positions.

The delegation was surprised by the shootings and Mr. Naeem Al Khateeb, the member of the popular movement in the Yarmouk camp, was injured due to fire shooting. The injury led to stop the UNRWA food distribution to the Yarmouk camp people.

Some people of the Yarmouk camp participated in a demonstration calling to an immediate implementation of the neutralization agreement, to take the siege away and to return people to their houses. The people of the Yarmouk camp also complain of being prevented, by armed groups, to get their food aids. It is worth mentioning that UNRWA distributed a small amount of food aids due to the security tensions in the camp.

On the other hand, the drinking water crisis continues in Khan Danoun for Palestinian Refugees in Damascus city. The people are suffering of drinking water and power cut for long periods, which compelled them to buy water from private tanks in high prices that increases their economic burdens. It is mentioned that the camp receives tens of families who left their camps due to the siege and bombings.

In Khan Al Sheih camp, in Damascus city, a state of calm prevailed out and coincided with the frequent cut of roads which connect the camp and the capital center in Damascus. The roads cut led to the run out of food and medical materials and the raised prices of the remaining goods. The camp was exposed , last week, to bombings by explosive barrels resulted in a victim and a number of wounded , in addition to the big damages of civil houses.

Civil Work Committees

For the Coming of the Holy month of Ramadan, The Palestinians of Syria Committee in Lebanon Sidon area, the Charitable Society for Social Welfare and Al Rafaa Society , distributed 165 food packages to the Palestinian refugees who are coming from Syria to Lebanon.
